

<https://literacytrust.org.uk/family-zone/>

Family Zone is full of free activities and ideas to keep your child busy at home, whilst also benefiting their reading, writing and language development.

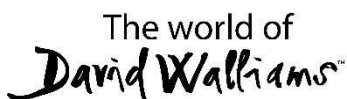

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/>

Storytime with free online books and videos, play games, win prizes, test your knowledge in book-themed quizzes, or even learn how to draw some of your favourite characters. Cressida Cowell is reading 'How to Train Your Dragon' chapter-by-chapter and suggesting activities to try. They also have a comprehensive list of reading-related activities happening across the Internet daily and weekly with authors reading their stories and talking about their books.

<https://www.wizardingworld.com/news/introducing-hp-at-home>

Wizarding World say: "This special Harry Potter at home hub is where you'll find all the latest things to keep you occupied. From special activity kits from Bloomsbury to Scholastic, to nifty magical craft videos (teach your friends how to draw a Niffler!) Fun articles, quizzes, puzzles and more. We're casting a Banishing Charm on boredom." The first book is now available free as an audio book during school closures and J K Rowling has granted an open licence for teachers to post videos of themselves reading from Harry Potter books 1-7 onto schools' secure networks or closed educational platforms until the end of the school year.

www.worldofdavidwalliams.com/elevenses/

Free audio stories for 30 days at 11am, read by David Walliams.

<https://www.ruthmiskin.com/en/>

Teaching every child to read and write and keep them reading!

<https://connect.collins.co.uk/school/Primary/PrimaryDashboard.aspx>

eBook versions of popular primary reading scheme.
Login details coming soon...

<https://www.spellingshed.com/en-gb>

Making spelling fun through games and activities.
Login details coming soon...

<https://www.purplemash.com/login/>

Purple Mash enables children to explore and enhance their knowledge in a fun and creative way. Use the log ins you have already been provided with by school.

<http://thinkingtalking.co.uk/free-resources-schools-families/>

Activities to support children's development of speech, language and communication.

THE POETRY SOCIETY <https://poetrysociety.org.uk/education/learning-from-home/>

Their Education Team has gathered together a bundle of poetry learning resources for parents, carers and children.